RAINFALL EXTENDS OVER
MOST OF THE SOUTHLAND

Will Counteract Much of Damage to Citrus Crops—Loss
Report Is Exaggerated

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—The drought was broken here by twenty-nine hundredths inches of rain during last night. More rain is predicted for tonight.

At Redondo Beach the precipitation reached forty-four hundredths; Santa Barbara, thirty-four hundredths; Riverside, two hundredths; Redlands, a trace; San Bernardino, seven hundredths; Pasadena, two hundredths with Mt. Wilson and Mt. Lowe covered with snow.

The precipitation was general throughout Southern California and continued until daybreak. Clear skies prevailed here during this morning although the barometer was low. The total precipitation here this morning for the season was one and twenty-three hundredths inches. Last season at this time, it had reached two and seventy-eight hundredths inches; normal, five and eighty-seven hundredths. The weather forecast indicates rain for tonight and Friday night with snow in the mountains.

Citrus Fruit Growers Glad

The orange and lemon growers are jubilant over the rain, as it probably means reclamation from the frost conditions that prevailed for three nights. The growers say the rain assures a slower rise in temperature, thus insuring the gradual withdrawal of frost from the fruit, and a renewal of the sap in the trees. In addition to this hope and belief on the part of the growers, it is now believed the damage to citrus fruits have been greatly exaggerated and that the loss will not reach nearly 50 per cent of the crop. It is officially stated by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce that examination may show that the loss may not reach more than 30 per cent.

SNOW FALLS AGAIN TODAY

CONGRESS MAY AID FROST PROTECTION

California and Florida Solons
Unite In Formulating Plan
For Submission

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Plans were laid in Washington yesterday which may result in finally checking all danger of destruction through sudden cold waves.

Together with the Florida members of congress, the representatives of California plan to inaugurate a movement, in conjunction with the Weather Bureau and the Department of Agriculture to conduct a series of experiments to devise an effective defense for citrus orchards against frost. After deciding upon a plan of action and estimating the cost of the work, a bill will be introduced to appropriate the necessary funds.

Bureau Seeks Data

But one bulletin has been published by the department on the subject of protection against frosts, this being a report of the investigations conducted in the spring of 1910 on the guarding of the apple and pear orchards of the Rogue Valley in Oregon, by means of fires and smudges. No comprehensive study has been made of citrus orchards in the same connection.

W. J. Bryan Has High Hopes For Wilson's Ideals

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 9.—That Gov. Wilson will be governed as President by higher motives than gratitude is the hope expressed in the current issue of Bryan's Commoner. The article says: "Cabinet positions ought not to be regarded as currency for the payment of political debts. In filling them, the President-elect should look to the future, not the past. Such offices should be used to strengthen the Democratic party, and to advance those things for which the party stands. The Commoner declines to discuss cabinet possibilities, but ventures to express the hope that President-elect Wilson will be governed by higher motives than gratitude in selecting his cabinet."

FLOOD WATER IS MENACING

Pittsburg on Anxious Seat
With Rivers Rising Above the Danger Line

PITTSBURG, Jan. 9.—With only eighteen hours' warning, Pittsburg is preparing for a flood. At the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, the water is already thirty-one and three-tenths feet deep. This is nine feet above the danger line. Property damage is already great. The mills are flooded and thousands of workmen are idle. Hundreds of basements are flooded. A great flood of the Ohio river is expected today. Forty-eight feet are predicted at Wheeling. This will be very dangerous.

Dangerous Outlook

PITTSBURG, Jan. 9.—Pittsburg is contending with the greatest flood it has had in seven years. Miles of streets in the sections lying along the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers are under water. Residents of this district are navigating the streets in skiffs.

Some of the big downtown skyscrapers were dark last night.

HIS NECK WILL PROBABLY BE SAVED

Judge West Recommends
Bombela's Sentence Be
Commuted to Life

ANOTHER REPRIEVE
GRANTED YESTERDAY

Vindictive Attitude of His Wife and Marks on Man's Body
Basis of Chances

Manuel Bombela's neck will probably be saved. For the fourth time he has been reprieved, and the chances now are that Gov. Johnson will commute Bombela's sentence of hanging to life imprisonment. Judge West has made a recommendation to that effect, and the Mexican consul is endeavoring to secure that action.

Bombela killed his brother-in-law, Apolonio Valles, at a Spanish dance near Los Alamitos. He pleaded not guilty, was tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree, which carried with it a sentence to death.

Bombela's relatives, including his wife, were all against him. Their story of the murder was that Bombela had mistreated his wife and that she left their home at Anaheim and went to a beet camp near Los Alamitos, joining her two brothers and mother. Bombela went to the place. A dance was in progress. Mrs. Bombela refused to dance with her husband, and her brother, Apolonio, took her part. Bombela left the house. When Apolonio followed, Bombela fired at him with a revolver. Apolonio took the revolver from him, and thought the fracas was over. Suddenly Bombela lunged at him with a knife, and stabbed him twice.

Bombela always declared that he was set upon by the Valles crowd, among whom he had no friends, and that he killed Valles in the fight that followed.

After Bombela was taken to San Quentin under sentence of death, Judge West wrote a letter to Gov. Johnson in which he stated that there were two reasons for asking the governor to commute Bombela's sentence from death to life imprisonment. One was that the attitude of Bombela's wife was extremely vindictive, and the other was that upon Bombela's body were slight wounds that the judge was never satisfied that they were not inflicted in the manner alleged by Bombela.

Some time after Judge West wrote this letter, the Mexican consul at Los Angeles interested himself in Bombela's case, and he asked Gov. Johnson for a reprieve so that he could investigate. The Mexican consul has been here and has interviewed the district attorney and the judge. To him Judge West made the same statements that he had previously made in his letter to the governor.

A Sacramento dispatch says: SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8.—Manuel Bombela, sentenced from Orange county for murder, will not be hanged on January 10 as scheduled. A further reprieve has been granted him by Gov. Johnson at the request of the Mexican consul, until February 7. The Mexican government is investigating the case. This is the fourth time Bombela has been reprieved.

STRONG RESERVES FOR WAR, SAYS WOOD

Chief of Staff Endorses Bill
For Enlisting Reserves
For U. S. Army

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—That a reasonably strong reserve may be established in the United States with the least possible delay, all men who have served in the regular army, marine corps or militia and are of proper age and physically fit, should be authorized to enlist at once in the reserve and receive pay, in the opinion of Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army. General Wood recently endorsed the bill introduced by Representative Tilden of Connecticut, providing for a national military reserve.

"The reservist should receive $2 a month while in reserve," said General Wood, "and when called on in war should receive an amount equivalent to $2 for each month he may have served in the reserve."

By way of contrast with the United States, which has no reserves, General Wood enumerated the reserves in the following countries: Great Britain, 215,000; Japan, 1,000,000; Italy, 1,500,000; Austria, 2,500,000; France, 3,000,000; Germany, 4,700,000; Russia, 5,400,000.

BISHOP THINKS
TWO-FIFTHS LOST

Rain of Last Night Was Great
Aid to Fruit Recovering
From Damage

County Horticultural Commissioner Bishop last night made a report to the State Horticultural Commission of damage done in this county to the citrus fruit by the cold snap. Bishop estimates that forty per cent of the crop will be unmarketable.

"We are in a good deal better shape in this county than in any other orange growing section," said Bishop today.

"Along the foothills is a section where there was almost no damage. I made a careful investigation all through that territory. Orchards where smudging was done properly are showing up in fine shape."

A large proportion of the orchards where smudging was done thoroughly passed through Monday and Tuesday nights without damage. In the last three days the smudge-pots demonstrated their efficiency.

One of the hardest fights to save a crop was made by R. E. Reid, and he succeeded. Next summer he will be able to sell Valencia's guaranteed free from frost. His success is all the more noticeable for the reason that Valencia's generally were harder hit than navel or lemons. With his smudge pots Tuesday night he kept the temperature above 28 throughout his twenty-acre grove on East First street.

More Optimistic

Growers of the Santa Ana, Tustin and Orange sections are more optimistic today than they have been at any time since the drop in temperature Monday morning. The reaction from the effects of the cold indicated far less damage than was at first supposed to be possible. The weather for thawing out has been ideal, and the rain of last night added to the chances of recovery from the damage.

Taking the county as a whole, there was little damage to trees. Even young orchards seem to have escaped with nothing more than the tender growth nipped.

Last night's rain came in time to save the orchards from another night of low temperature. At 11 o'clock in some of the orchards the thermometers were down to 29. At that time there was not a cloud in sight. By 1 o'clock it was raining.

Last night's rainfall here came to fifteen hundredths of an inch, making 1.36 inches for the season. At Orange the fall was a fifth of an inch. The county would be greatly benefited by a good rain now, of two and a half or three inches.

Real Demonstration

The condition of F. B. Browning's orchard on Irvine boulevard furnishes a demonstration of the efficiency of smudging. By it Browning saved ninety per cent of his crop. He would have saved more but for the fact that he gave little attention to some of his highest ground that he thought in the least danger. Where he smudged Browning has plenty of little lemons showing no marks of frost. The lay of his land is such that anyone examining the orchard must conclude that the smudging does the work.

Has the Evidence

H. H. Gardner of Santa Ana today brought down from his ranch at Villa Park some of the plants from his vegetable patches, showing no signs of frost. There were no signs of damage on the place. The eggplants, bell peppers, lima beans, cucumbers and tomatoes passed through the cold snap unharmed. In that section oranges and trees were not harmed.

FORTY PER CENT IS UNMARKETABLE SAYS R. K. BISHOP

The following telegram was sent last night to E. O. Essig, secretary of the State Horticultural Commission, by Roy K. Bishop, Orange county's horticultural commissioner:

"There are sections of county not injured. Smudging prevented considerable loss in others. At least 60 per cent of the oranges were injured to some extent. The total loss of oranges will be 40 per cent. Valencia's are greatest sufferers. Lemons loss will be 20 per cent. Lemon and orange trees, both old and young, not severely injured."

"ROY K. BISHOP."

CUTTLE CONVINCED THAT THE WATER COMMISSION BILL SHOULD BE PASSED

Spreading of Storm Water by Tri-County
Committee Has Resulted in Decided Increase of Supply in Summer

In a report to the Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee, Francis Cuttle of Riverside, chairman of that committee and a member of the State Conservation Commission, has set himself on record in favor of the water commission bill proposed by the Conservation Commission. Cuttle's report deals with other important matters. He tells of the great work the Tri-Counties Committee is doing in the conservation of water. Cuttle's report follows:

To the Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee.

Gentlemen:—This is the seventh year since the organization of this committee. During that time I believe we can fairly say that good work has been done in the protection of the water shed cover on the water shed from which we secure our supply of water, and also through the subsidiary organization, the Water Conservation Association, good work has been done in the direct conservation of water itself.

Statement By Forest Supervisor

I am advised by Mr. R. H. Charlton that he has now a fairly complete set of fire lines and trails so that all parts of the water shed are reasonably accessible and the most dangerous places are protected by wide fire lines.

In a recent communication he states that:

"The two patrolmen employed by your committee for a period of three months each, were stationed in the Santa Ana canyon. One at the mouth of the canyon, the other at Clark's ranch. They were placed there because the travel up and down that canyon is constantly increasing as the wagon road is improved and because the forest service appropriations did not permit of the assignment of a ranger there unless some other place was neglected."

These two patrolmen last summer fought and extinguished a number of camp fires, any one of which might have resulted in a serious fire. On another occasion one of these patrolmen, with the aid of some men he found close at hand, extinguished a fire which had started up the side of the mountain, and which, if he had not happened to have been on the ground, would have resulted in a most disastrous conflagration. * * *

We now have the south slope of the San Bernardino mountains fairly well accessible and cut up by trails so that should a fire occur we will not have much difficulty in getting to it. * * * Heretofore we have had but about thirty rangers during the summer months. This past summer we had forty, and in addition, fourteen patrolmen were employed by your committee, water companies, power companies and others interested in water shed protection. * * *

As you probably know, we have never had very satisfactory results in tree planting and it was thought best to abandon large operations until we could devise some means or find some species that could be handled successfully. One of the experiments which we are conducting will, I am sure, prove of considerable interest to the water users. It has for its object the determination of the exact value of chaparral covered lands for water shed purposes as distinguished from timber covered and grass covered lands. * * *

When this is concluded we will know just how much it (chaparral) actually does transpire. For the present calendar year we had practically no fires of any consequence in the San Bernardino mountains, and it might interest you to know

TURKS CLING TO ADRIANOPLE-- POWERS PROBABLY MUST ACT

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Turkish envoys received fresh instructions during the night which it is reported ordered them to refuse to compromise on the Adrianople demand until the powers actually intervene. Ambassadorial conversations are still progressing, and is expected a definite program will be determined today.

Premier Venizelos, chief Greek plenipotentiary, said today the Greek delegates are authorized to insist upon Turkish cession of the Aegean islands. He declared the Greek failure to get islands would precipitate a revolution at home. He understood the powers had not decided regarding the disposition of the islands but had agreed that Turkey must cede Adrianople.

Turkey Refuses Demands

"Turkey absolutely refuses to abandon Adrianople. If peace hinges on this contingency hostilities might as well resume immediately." This statement was made to the United Press today by Resad Riasia, chief of the Turkish envoys, to the peace conference. He continued: "So far as I am concerned, the matter now rests with the powers. I am unprepared to ask a renewal of negotiations without instructions from Constantinople."

"We've conceded everything," Resad said.

The Balkan envoys entered the conference in an unconciliatory spirit. That has been their attitude throughout. Turkey refuses to abandon Adrianople, because its population is essentially Turkish. Bulgaria's desire to acquire it cannot be prompted by sentimental reasons. The Aegean islands are an indispensable protection to the Dardanelles but are not a menace to other nations as long as Turkey possesses them. I would like Americans to understand these points before forming an opinion."

Yesterday's Happenings

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Although there was no formal conference yesterday, the peace envoys conferred privately at their hotels. It is believed the powers will intervene unless an agreement is reached by Friday.

A Constantinople dispatch says the foreign ambassadors there are bringing pressure on the porte to abandon Adrianople. "The Balkan plenipotentiaries here predict that Adrianople will soon fall, and that terms will then be met. A semi-official dispatch says the triple alliance favors the plan that Turkey should abandon Adrianople but hold the Aegean islands."

A Sofia cablegram says Czar Ferdinand has gone to the Tchatalla lines to personally meet the Sultan.

Lodging Houses for Seamen
In San Francisco

10 OTHERS BELIEVED TO BE BURIED IN RUINS

Many Heroic Rescues by Firemen and Lodgers—Batal-
lion Chief Injured

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—Three persons are known to be dead and thirteen are in the emergency hospital, seriously injured, and several of them may die, as the result of a fire early today destroying the Marltime and San Pedro lodging houses at Howard and East street, near the waterfront. Ten others are believed to have been buried in the ruins. The bodies recovered were burned beyond recognition.

The lodging houses occupied half a block of flimsy wooden structures, with but three narrow wooden stairways, which were soon cut off by the flames. The firemen repeatedly reared ladders to the crowded windows, the casements often crumbling when the ladders touched them, many of the injured missing the life nets when they jumped. Six firemen, including Battalion Chief James B. Britt, are among the seriously injured. The firemen and lodgers performed many heroic rescues.

More than two hundred lodgers were in the houses when the fire started, the majority being longshoremen, stowaways and deep water sailors. There were a few women. It will be impossible to ever ascertain the exact number who perished, because no register of the lodgers was kept.

Among the seriously injured are: Battalion Chief Britt, who was overcome and injured in a gas explosion; Mrs. Katherine Goldstein, who jumped from a window, ankle broken and internally injured; Frank Fischer, seriously burned while trying to rescue Mrs. Goldstein; Olaf Elison, asphyxiated. Carl Schliebos and Fireman McElroy, Malloy and O'Keefe were burned. McElroy was burned while trying to rescue Britt. At noon the firemen were probing the smoking ruins searching for bodies. It is impossible yet to penetrate the places where other bodies are believed to lie.

BLUE SKY LAW PROGRESSING

Senator Anderson Busy on
Bill—Wright Started Ball
Rolling on Rules Resolution

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 9.—Senator Anderson of Santa Ana is working today on his "blue sky" bill, providing that all corporations must pay dividends or retire from business. Senator Anderson believes the corporations should be dissolved unless they pay a specified dividend at the end of two years, unless seventy-five per cent of the stockholders favor the continuance. The object of the bill is to safeguard small investors.

LEGISLATIVE BALL STARTED ROLLING TODAY BY WRIGHT

Senator Wright started the state legislative ball rolling today by introducing a concurrent resolution providing for a Senate and Assembly caucus on joint rules. Curtin and Caminetti immediately attacked the resolution, Wright defending. No important business was transacted until the rules fight is settled. The Democratic attempt to secure postponement until tomorrow of action on Wright's proposed joint committee on rules was defeated decisively late today.

GOV. MARSHALL FOR PROGRESSIVE LAWS FOR THE PEOPLE

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 9.—The sixty-eighth general assembly convened at noon today. Gov. Marshall in his final message urged the passage of several progressive measures, including the working men's compensation, public utilities and inheritance tax laws, and the popular election of federal senators.

TOURIST CROP IS UNINJURED

Coming Through in Fine Shape—Will Be Heaviest This State Ever Known

Los Angeles Tribune: The first special train of northerners bound for Los Angeles this season, one of several excursions, is on its way to Los Angeles, having left Portland last night over the Southern Pacific. There are 200 prosperous residents of the Pacific northwest in the party, according to a telegram received yesterday by F. S. McGinnis, district passenger agent of the Southern Pacific at Los Angeles.

"These visitors are coming to spend the winter in Southern California and to escape the snow and ice of their own country," said Mr. McGinnis. "Many of them are from Canada. They, like the many thousands of tourists coming here from the eastern states, do not regard the brief frosty snap here as real cold weather. They know it will be over before they get here and will not interfere in any way with their pleasures in motoring over the good roads, playing golf on the fine links, bathing at the sunlit beaches and enjoying themselves to the fullest extent in Southern California."

Biggest Tourist Year
"This will be the biggest tourist year the state has ever known. Every train is packed with people. Reservations are made weeks in advance. Agents in all parts of the United States report a remarkably keen interest by the public in securing transportation to California. The Southern Pacific limited trains are carrying extra cars daily. All records for westbound tourist travel will be smashed this year."

"The travel from the northwest is comparatively new, although two excursions have been run from that territory in the past two years. It will develop swiftly as the result of wide advertising. Every year will witness a growth of passenger traffic to Southern California from Canada and the territory which includes Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Vancouver."

BADLY BURNED IN EXPLOSION

Mrs. Royer of Orange Had Narrow Escape From Serious Injury Yesterday

Orange News: Mrs. D. F. Royer, wife of Dr. Royer, was painfully burned by a stove explosion at her home yesterday afternoon, but fortunately escaped serious injury. She suffered burns on the forehead and cheeks while her hair, eyebrows and eyelashes were singed. Her escape from more serious results was most fortunate.

The explosion took place in a gas oven, over which Mrs. Royer was bending at the time. She was thrown backward several feet by the force, dazed by its suddenness and the stinging burns, but retained presence of mind enough to extinguish flames which had caught in her clothing around her neck. Ava, her little daughter, who had been standing close by, was struck by hot squashes which had been baking in the oven but was not hurt, though badly frightened by the affair.

Both Dr. Royer and Dr. Chapline answered hurry calls to the Royer residence and gave prompt attention to Mrs. Royer's burns. It is not believed that any lasting marks will be left by the explosion. Today her eyes are giving the most trouble, but nothing serious is anticipated.

Vegetables for Exhibition Purposes.
As an illustration of the frostless condition of the Villa Park region, and in order to let the fact be generally known in other parts an exhibit of local vegetables will be placed with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

A. J. Boulanger, secretary of the Orange County Vegetable Growers' Association at Villa Park, is gathering lots of each variety of vegetables handled by the association. These he expects to place with Mr. Frank Wiggins, secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, as an example of Villa Park's frost-proof territory.

With other sections of Southern California badly frosted, the display of fresh, healthy produce from the Villa Park district will show in splendid contrast. It is Mr. Boulanger's belief that the idea will prove worth while.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Headache, Sour Stomach, Biliousness or Constipation By Morning

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

WRITING.

There is this good in a large library—that it frightens the holder. Two hundred thousand volumes are enough to discourage a man tempted to print a book. But unfortunately he very often says to himself, "Most of these books are not read, and perhaps mine will be." He compares to the drop of water that complained of being confounded and lost in the ocean. A genie took pity on it and made an oyster swallow it. It became one of the finest pearls of the ocean and in time the chief ornament of the great mogul's throne. Those who are mere compilers, imitators, commentators, pickers of phrases, critics by the weak—in short, those on whom no genie will take pity—will forever remain the drop of water. Our man then is working to become the pearl.—Voltaire.

THE WATER WAGON

January First is a traditional period when a considerable number of men swear off from the seductive clink of the social wine glass, and the bibulous delights of the more furtive little black bottles. Somehow the Water Wagon never looks as popular Feb. 1 as it did 30 days earlier. But it may be a very good means for transportation for all that.

It is hardly the province of a newspaper to tell its readers whether they should or should not abstain altogether from the use of intoxicating liquor. It may be said, however, that cold water never led any man to smash the furniture. The fellows who use it can buy cheaper life insurance, and they often are invited to walk into the front office when they apply for a job.

It is often remarked that a man must be prepared to line up at the bar with the "boys" or he will be considered unsocial and cannot make business friends. Nothing can be farther from the truth. The man who seeks friendship will find it, whether he calls for milkshake or highballs. When there is money to spend for goods or service it goes to efficiency and not to sweet smiles.

Total abstainers often make the mistake, however, of assuming an attitude of moral superiority. Let them reflect that every man is his own judge and jury when it comes to eating and drinking. To be sure there is a superior court of public opinion, and a Great Judge on high, that one day will hear and act on the net results of every man's life. Let them decide.

Wherefore, when you pass up the high ball and select the ginger pop, be careful how you hand your neighbor a temperance tract. Demon Rum is a tough old customer and he never reads statistics. Stand up like a man in your own boots, but don't use a club or a straight-jacket in trying to make the other fellow wear them, and you'll have friends all right, if you have the gift of friendliness.

SIMPLE STATE FUNCTIONS

When Gov. Johnson came into office there was no inauguration ball and he has no military staff. In many ways California's great governor has declared for simplicity without being freaky.

A Washington dispatch says the President-elect would like to walk to the capitol inauguration day, if it were not that the crowds of sensation-seekers would prevent it.

And Governor Sulzer, of the greatest state of the union, wearing his old grey suit with a plain derby hat, walked to the capitol to take the oath of office.

Many people will call Gov. Sulzer's induction into office tame and uninteresting, and will feel that the greater the post, the more impressive should be the dignity that surrounds it.

As far as wearing your old clothes on such an occasion goes, one would advise the new president-elect not to follow the New York man's example. The choice of clothes subtly registers the importance you place on any occasion.

If you invite your friends to your home for a party, and don your working togs for that affair, they would logically assume that you did not care whether you pleased them or not. Gov. Sulzer did not mean to convey that idea, but his old clothes gave the impression that he regarded the assumption of one of the highest offices in the United States as of no more importance than an excursion for the purpose of jollying the voters at a cattle show.

But as respects frills, fuss, and feathers, there is much to be said in favor of simplicity. Let the public servant convince the public of his greatness, by the unselfish devotion with which he fights for efficient government and for the welfare of the people.

Prancing horses and marching hosts are a poor substitute for economy in using government money and systematic efforts to better the condition of the common man.

Then too, gilt lace and martial display costs money that someone has to pay. And that someone is not the president nor the governor. The moment you begin to throw money away for some purpose not directly necessary for efficient government, that moment you help spread the impression that the public treasury is on tap for all comers.

Mr. Wilson is said to have a fine flow of language. He also must have an immense reservoir of it.

LEGISLATORS HAVE VIEWED THE SITE

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 7.—Twenty-five members of the California legislature have visited the exposition grounds here, and so favorably impressed with the plans and progress for the exposition were they that they promised to do all they could to secure an appropriation of one million dollars from the state in aid of the San Diego Exposition.

The visiting party of officials was composed of United States Senator Frank P. Flint, State Senators J. L. Avey, Prescott F. Cogswell, Lee C. Gates, Leslie R. Hewitt, Henry C. Lyon, D. W. Mott, Assemblymen Thomas L. Ambrose, Henry S. Benedict, F. H. Bloodgood, James F. Cram, Howard J. Fish, Lyman Farwell, Thomas G. Gabbert, George H. Johnson, W. A. Johnstone, Arthur G. Kuck, H. W. Morehouse, Frank H. Mouser, Howard A. Pearls, W. A. Roberts, W. C. Wall, H. V. Weissel, Frank E. Woodley. Several of these were accompanied by their wives.

These visitors were entertained here by exposition officials and a reception committee, with luncheon and dinner, and auto drives to the exposition grounds and Point Loma. A number of the legislators were present a year ago at the ground breaking for the exposition, and these were particularly impressed with the progress already made in exposition building.

Senator Prescott F. Cogswell became a convert to the idea of a state appropriation for the San Diego Exposition when he saw the project. "Ask for all you want, and don't make your request too small," is the way he advised the exposition officials.

"The exposition is typical of California, and it has my support," said Senator Lee C. Gates, who made the dedicatory speech at the ground breaking.

Senator Leslie R. Hewitt advocated a million dollar appropriation. "Go ahead," he said, "just continue the good work." Representative Arthur G. Kuck said: "You ought to have help from the state. Your exposition is the making of the best I have ever seen. You have my support."

Representative H. S. Benedict, who was a candidate for the Speaker's chair, said: "I am delighted with the showing made. I was here at the ground breaking and can appreciate what has been done and appreciate the good faith of the people of San Diego. The exposition deserves every consideration from the state."

Representative W. A. Roberts said: "The exposition is not a stereotyped affair, patterned after those who have gone before, but is something new and original which shows the real California. I am in favor of it. It has the right idea."

Representatives Fish, Johnson, Ambrose, Pearls, Woodley and others expressed high approval of the exposition and that they would work for and support a measure providing a large appropriation for the work.

The advanced state of work on the exposition grounds made a marked impression upon the legislative delegation, and the nurseries, where are growing a million and a half of all sorts of specimens of plant life from all over the world, causing the visitors to gasp in pleased admiration.

CUTLER THINKS WATER COMMISSION BILL SHOULD BE PASSED

tion of these natural resources. Immediately after the law was passed creating such a commission, many members of this committee urged your chairman to try to secure his appointment as a member of the commission. I made no effort, personally, to secure such appointment beyond stating to members of the committee that if they desired I would accept a position on the commission and do my best to safeguard the interests of the water users and others who have a right to their share of the natural resources of the state. My appointment was secured and I began my services as a commissioner about May, 1911, and ever since have taken an active part in the work of the Conservation Commission.

Several bills have been drafted by this commission, among them what is known as the "water commission bill." Two attempts were made at the special session of the legislature of this state, held during the early part of 1912, to pass bills creating a water commission. I called this committee together in February and pointed out to them the dangers which I believed threatened the water users of the southern part of the state, if not the whole state, by the enactment of these bills. Their most objectionable features being that they made it mandatory on the commission to investigate all streams and stream systems in the state, and further, it made the conclusions of the commission prima-facie correct as to facts and not subject to appeal. Further than that, I claimed that these bills had not had sufficient consideration by the people at large to enable them to judge of their merits. As you know, a short, sharp and successful campaign was carried on against these bills and both were defeated.

At that time I understood that this committee was not opposed to the general policy of having a water commission in this state, but that it desired to carefully scan the powers and duties of such a commission. Acting on that theory and as your representative on the Conservation Commission, I stated at the first meeting at which the draft of a new bill was proposed that while I might agree to many or even all of the provisions of the bill, that I should reserve the right to oppose the bill as a whole if it should be found unsatisfactory to the people whom I represented in the south. For the past year and a half the commissioners have conscientiously worked to secure a bill for the creation of a water commission that would not only be not inimical to the water users of the state, but that would be beneficial, and the commissioners now believe that they have such a bill—not perfect in all of its details, but in its general policy.

It is not my purpose in this report to discuss the merits of that bill, but I desire to say in conclusion that while I reserved the right to oppose the bill as a whole, I am so thoroughly convinced that the bill is a good one for the water users of this state that I cannot conscientiously, and will not, oppose it, and I therefore suggest to this committee that if it desires me to assist in securing the passage of the said bill I shall do so to the best of my ability. If, however, it desires to oppose the bill I would suggest that it either appoint some other member of this committee to oppose it, or, if preferred, to select some other member as chairman of the committee who can conscientiously oppose the bill.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANCIS CUTLER, Chairman.
Riverside, Cal., Jan. 9, 1913.

PLANS SUBMITTED FOR MASONIC HALL

Anaheim Gazette: The Masonic building committee held a meeting Tuesday evening, and received plans for the proposed Masonic hall which is to adorn the lodge's lots on East Center street. The building as planned will cost probably upwards of $30,000, and will be one of the most modern and up-to-date lodge halls in this part of the state. It will be of brick, two stories, and will have a frontage of 90 feet on Center street, continuing 125 feet north from that street. It will be of ornamental design and everything about it will be of the latest and most approved design. The lower floor will be occupied by two mercantile establishments and are already practically rented for that purpose. The upper floor will be given over to lodge rooms and offices, the latter occupying the front part of the building with the lodge rooms in the rear. The lodge hall will probably have two entrances, one in front and one on the side. The entire structure will be one of which the city and lodge members may well be proud, and it will be a decided addition to the architectural beauty of the city's business section. The renting of the two lower rooms indicates the entrance into the city of other stores and this will mark a step forward. Some of the offices are bargained for and before the completion of the building all will probably be taken.

The plans were submitted at the meeting Tuesday night and were practically accepted by the building committee. They will be introduced for final acceptance and ratification at the next regular meeting of the lodge, which is to be held on Monday evening, January 20. At this time final steps will probably be taken and the building immediately commenced.

Princesses Agree to Take $7,520,000 to Settle Claims Against Late King Leopold's Estate
BRUSSELS, Jan. 9.—The suit brought against the state by the Princesses Louise, Clementine and Stephanie, daughters of the late King Leopold, for a larger share of their father's fortune, ended yesterday in an offer of $7,520,000 to settle the claim.

Leopold bequeathed his daughter-only $3,000,000 which he inherited from his father, Leopold I. The Princesses claimed the fortune amassed by their father from his Congo interests. The judge presiding at the trial of the suit in the appeals court suggested that the offer be made to avoid a judgment against the state and the princesses accepted the amount.

The Coming Apple Country

Owens River Valley Attracting Widespread Notice

While the Owens River Valley, Inyo county, California, has long been known as the Dairyman's Paradise, it is only quite recently that the country at large has awakened to its possibilities as a fruit and vegetable section.

The climatic conditions are unexcelled, and the section is particularly adapted to the culture of the apple and the pear—the soil and water conditions being excellent, and the locality absolutely free from pests and blight.

Many people are now locating there and values have correspondingly increased, yet this choice land with ample water can still be bought at a surprisingly low price and on the most favorable terms.

Conditions in the Owens River Valley are not only perfect for raising apples, but also for alfalfa, and all kinds of berries and vegetables—potatoes especially yielding enormously.

Good incomes are also being made from chickens, turkeys, bees and livestock.

A most impressive showing of the fruits and vegetables of this favored section is on exhibition at the offices of Messrs. C. R. Thomas & Son, 229 Title Insurance Bldg., Los Angeles, selling agents of the Owens Valley Improvement Company. All of their land is under an excellent irrigation system. It is located on the Southern Pacific Trunk line to the east, and adjacent to a number of thriving little towns where there are good schools and churches. The distance is about 250 miles from Los Angeles. It is planned to run an excursion from Los Angeles to the Owens River Valley January 15th. If you are interested in the best land proposition available today, it will pay you to plan to go on this excursion. Write to Messrs. Thomas & Son at the above address for full particulars.

BEGAN STUDY OF CHINA

Women's Missionary Society of United Presbyterian Church Had Meeting

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian Church held a most interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Luther Kellogg, 119 Orange avenue. In spite of the cold weather the cozy rooms were filled with members and friends of the society. The bright, warm parlors were made more cheery with beautiful poinsettias that had escaped the freezing weather.

Mrs. C. C. Collins led the devotional service. The study of China was taken up and will be continued for the next six months. Yesterday's reading proved that it will be an interesting study. Mrs. Fred Miller read a very interesting account of the "Principal Contributing Causes of China's Break with the Past." Mrs. Harry Dean read a well prepared paper on "China as a World Factor" and an interesting discussion followed the reading of these papers.

During the business hour arrangements and plans were discussed for the entertaining of the Women's Presbyterian Society which meets in Santa Ana the 15th of March. The members of the executive board of the society will meet in Los Angeles Wednesday, Jan. 15th. Mrs. Sampson read a letter from Miss Brotherson, the missionary in India supported by the congregation, in which she stated she expected to visit Santa Ana soon as she would soon be at home on furlough. It is hoped Miss Brotherson will be here for the meeting of the Presbyterian society.

At the close of the business the hostesses served delicious fruit salad, wafers, gingerbread and cocoa. Mrs. Kellogg was assisted in entertaining by Miss Rosaline Kellogg, Miss Minnie Cowan and Mrs. Tidball. The society will meet next month with Mrs. Leigh Galloway, 1421 N. Main street.

Athena Meeting

Yesterday afternoon the Athena Club held its regular meeting at the high school.

Miss Brockett, one of the new English teachers, favored the girls with a vocal solo and graciously responded to a hearty encore. Helen Neff played her accompaniment.

There were readings by Georgia Smith and Elsie Wingood. Eva Martin played a piano solo and Charles Deaver entertained with a vocal solo. The program was completed by a humorous dialogue entitled, "Pa Says So, Anyhow," and rendered by Margaret Roy and Helen Roberts.

DELIGHTFUL MEETING

St. Elizabeth's Guild Had First Reunion of New Year; Plans For Entertainment

The St. Elizabeth's Guild of the Church of the Messiah met last evening, for the first time in the New Year, at the apartments of the rector and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Rufus S. Chase, at 113 East Tenth street.

A goodly number of the members were present and during the business session it was planned to hold some kind of an entertainment in the very near future. It was also thought that other young ladies of the church should be invited to join the Guild. The social life of the church could be greatly enhanced by having the young people gather together in a social way more frequently.

After the business session was concluded, various interesting and amusing games were played and a real good time enjoyed by all. A bright fire was glowing in the "open grate" stove, over which corn was "popped."

At the close of the most enjoyable evening Mrs. Chase served delicious ice cream and cake. The company broke up at a late hour, proclaiming Rector and Mrs. Chase excellent hosts. Mrs. Robert Parker and Mr. Harold Henshaw were guests of the Guild.

Talked of China

In the parlor of the First Christian church yesterday afternoon the ladies of the Women's Missionary Society of that church, had a most interesting meeting.

"The Needs of the Women of the Orient" was the general topic, and was discussed under the leadership of Mrs. W. T. Mitchell. Two interesting papers were read, by Mrs. W. F. Knight and Mrs. H. Gerard. Miss Etta Conkle, at home from Berkeley, where she is fitting herself for mission work in the Orient, gave a resume of the governmental and commercial aspects of China as a republic, under the general title of "What the Chinese are Doing." The entire program was much enjoyed.

In the social hour that followed the program, the committee on entertainment served refreshments, ending an afternoon that had been very pleasant for the large number present in spite of the cold.

Guild Tea and Reception

The Guild Tea, given in combination with her annual reception to the Guild of the Church of the Messiah, was held at the home of its president, Mrs. George Balderston, yesterday afternoon. More than thirty ladies enjoyed the affair in rooms brightened with a profusion of autumn leaves and carnations.

An especially attractive musical program was given in which Mrs. C. F. Crose and Mrs. W. H. Crose sang a duet, "Tell Me Ye Merry Birds of Spring," giving "Little Boy Blue" as an encore. Mrs. A. J. Padgugan pleasantly rendered two piano selections entitled "Murmuring Breezes" and "Humoresque," while Mrs. W. H. Crose sang a solo, "Josephine," by request. The program was concluded by a piano duet rendered in a pleasing manner by Mrs. Harry Warne and Miss Ramona Cleveland.

The entire affair was delightful and resulted in the gathering of a goodly sum for the Guild Hall fund. Mrs. Balderston's new and handsome home made an ideal place for the successful reception.

WEDELL—COLE

Well Known Resident of Santa Ana Surprises Friends By Marriage

The news of the marriage of Mrs. Laura E. Cole, 2038 North Main street, to Mr. Peter Casper Wedell, which took place in Los Angeles yesterday at Temple Auditorium church by Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, comes as very much of a surprise to the many friends of the bride in this community. They will be interested in knowing that the bridegroom is a mining man of large interests, operating in Nevada and Utah. He is also an owner of property in Kansas City.

Of Mrs. Wedell, it is difficult to say anything that is not known, as she has lived here for many years. Her circle of friends and acquaintances is large, having been found during a residence of 25 or 30 years. As Mrs. Cole, she was the devoted wife of Dr. Addison L. Cole, a retired minister who was long identified with the interests of Santa Ana as a large property owner. The extensive acreage on Main and Broadway streets owned by the Cole has been a valuable holding and those sections of it that have been sold have been built up with beautiful homes.

Mrs. Wedell is greatly interested in music, formerly devoting much of her time to it. She is an active member of the Ebell Music Section. A member of the First Baptist Church, Mrs. Wedell has contributed largely to its prosperity and efficiency. With these and social duties and the care of her property interests, she has had a full quiver of interests, not the least of which has been the beautifying of her home place, both house and grounds.

In her new relations, Mrs. Wedell and the man of her choice will have the good wishes of all who know her.

Rees-Hawkins

In Santa Monica on Jan. 7, Miss Gladys M. Hawkins and Lester Rees were united in marriage, by Rev. Mr. Lobinger at the Christian church. Mrs. Rees is well and favorably known in Santa Ana and the groom is the only son of C. E. Rees of East Third street. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Studied Classic Models

Miss Terrell opened her cosy rooms in the Remsburg Apartments last night to the Art Study Club which held its first 1913 meeting. The hostess was in charge of the program and devoted the evening to an exposition of "Greek Sculpture." She covered the different periods of the sculpture of Greece, dwelling particularly on the decorations of the Parthenon.

Copies of the Parthenon decorations and also of famous Greek statuary illustrated the entertaining talk and brought the classical successes of ancient sculpture vividly to the eye. As is usual at the Art Club's meetings, the evening was closed in social intercourse during which the hostess served delectable refreshments to the many members who had defied the cold in order to be present.

"Rube Social"

Intermediates of the First Baptist church will hold a "Rube Social" at the home of the Misses Wingood, 1208 North Main, on Friday evening. "Every lady must wear a kaikier dress or something equally appropriate. Every gentleman must wear their wuxkin' close. If these rules are not followed you will be find a good nicker."

For Out-of-Town Guest

Mrs. W. F. Cox of Silver City, New Mexico, who is visiting relatives and friends here, was the guest of honor at a pretty afternoon affair given yesterday by Mrs. A. F. Wilson at her beautiful home on the corner of Sixth and Bush streets.

The ladies had their fancy work with them and with cheery conversation over the dainty sewing and listening to charming music, they found the hours flying by all too swiftly. The music was especially good and was rendered by Miss Sallie Wilson, who assisted her mother in entertaining. Miss Wilson's voice is a clear soprano, which is being carefully trained. She delightfully sang a number of solos and also pleased the company with her skillful instrumental playing.

A hospitable close to the pleasant hours was a dainty three course collation, prettily served in the dining room. Smilax was used for the table decorations with successful effect. Covers were laid for the hostesses and the following guests: Mesdames C. W. Wells, L. H. Neff, M. Lee, C. W. Stearns, H. M. Willett, D. Shannon of Santa Ana; Mrs. J. C. Stearns of Tustin; Miss Jean Thomas of Los Angeles; Miss Ida Nay and Miss Leola Wells of Santa Ana.

Banquet for All-Star Athletes (By One of Them.) Last evening in the banquet hall of the well known Dragon, the football stars from Santa Ana High School held their first annual "All-Star Banquet." The banquet table was magnificently decorated with smilax, asparagus and maiden hair fern, light pink roses intermingled among the ferns spread daintily over the table. In the center was a silver candelabrum beautifully shadowed with white and deep red shades. A large football was lying regally in the center.

The athletes present were "Bill" Warren, the All-Western center. It can be stated, and correctly so, that he has never been surpassed in this position in the history of Southern California football. Next to our wonderful center was seated the mighty Barker, who made Santa Ana High School famous for his fullback plunges. "Big Spud" came next, the boy who was never laid out, and a man who was always there when called upon. Holzgrate, known as the "Flying Dutchman," and who played the position of tackle without a rival, was in evidence. Tommy Hughes was there to get what he called "a smucency." George Walters, a new but fast and who showed up some of the veterans, also enjoyed the feed. So did "Si" Eaton, one of the brainiest men on the team, who played a consistent game all through the season. "Nooks" Tedford and many other stars who are well known in athletic annals were present. All were sorry that Mr. West was absent. Nevertheless, Manager Eaton ordered a plate of beans sent to his residence.

Short after-dinner talks were given, the Hon. Raymond Selph acting as toastmaster. In a very clear and concise manner, Bill Warren, ex-captain, and also re-elected captain, gave a short talk on "Our Prospects for Next Year." Barker, in like manner, spoke on "Why I Made Football a Success." George Walters gave a short but interesting talk on "Football and its Relation to School Life."

"Spud" Morrison told how it was he never got hit by Herbert Timmer talked on "What a Light My Head Has Been," of course referring to the shade of his hair. After a short "farewell" service, conducted by "Si" Eaton, which ended in a general collection as a tip for the waiters, the merry crowd of athletes disbursed all feeling much happier and much heavier for having been there.

The excellent menu provided by the Dragon for the athletes was as follows:

The Helping Hand
Notwithstanding the disagreeable afternoon, there were a large number of ladies in attendance at the monthly meeting of the Helping Hand Society of the First Baptist church, held yesterday at the home of Miss Mary Taylor, Edgewood Road.

As no special church duty had been scheduled for the day, the ladies had with them their own fancy work, over which they busied themselves during the routine business session.

Very appetizing refreshments were set before the ladies by the hostess of the afternoon, Miss Taylor, and the occasion was one of social enjoyment.

FEDERATION OF COUNTY CLUBS

Women's Clubs Held All Day Meeting Completing Chertished Organization Plan

Eleven study clubs of Orange county were represented at the meeting held yesterday at the Armory for the purpose of completing the formation of the County Federation of Women's Clubs. This number covered all but four of the county's study clubs. The federation was organized with great success, much enthusiasm prevailing over the consummation of the long cherished project.

The Woman's Club, which has been prominent in the movement for a club federation of Orange county clubs, acted as hostess to the half hundred women who assembled yesterday. A business session was held in the forenoon, the principal business being the hearing and adoption of the report of the committee on constitution and by-laws, the committeewomen being Mrs. E. L. Quinn, president of the Newport Ebell Society; Mrs. E. M. Nealley of Santa Ana Ebell Club, and Mrs. Anna Gale of the Santa Ana Woman's Club. There were but slight changes made in the constitution and by-laws before their adoption.

At noon the ladies enjoyed a delightful social hour, a basket luncheon with hot coffee served by the hostess club, lending an intimate air to the occasion that knitted closer the ties of acquaintance and friendship. The beautiful room, the cheerful glowing fire and the animated conversation progressing during this period, made the hour one not to be soon forgotten.

Immediately on the resumption of business after luncheon, Mrs. Gale, for the Woman's Club, gave a cordial welcoming address. This was followed by an entertaining talk from Mrs. Harriet M. Barry, widely known club woman and civic worker of Los Angeles and Monrovia. Mrs. Barry's talk was along the lines of general club work. In a brief talk given later she particularly emphasized the necessity of keeping partisan politics out of the federation. As editor of the Woman's Bulletin, the organ of Southern California clubs, and representative of women's interests in general, Mrs. Barry is unusually well equipped to give practical advice to club women, and both addresses were greatly enjoyed.

Election of officers resulted in the following choice of leaders for the federation: President, Mrs. Flora M. M. Pyle of Westminster; vice president, Mrs. Ida Dutton of Anaheim; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank Morse, Placentia; corresponding secretary, Miss Nicholls of Orange; treasurer, Mrs. Moore of Huntington Beach; auditor, Mrs. A. J. Lawton of Santa Ana.

It was decided to hold two federation meetings a year, the mid-year meeting in April and the annual meeting in October. The mid-year meeting will be omitted this year, making the annual meeting in October the first following the final organization of the federation.

The clubs represented at yesterday's meeting were: Newport Ebell, Tuesday Afternoon Club of Garden Grove, Anaheim Ebell, Placentia Round Table, Woman's Civics Club, Woman's Club and Ebell Society of Santa Ana; the American Woman's League clubs of Santa Ana, Orange and Fullerton.

The club women, in votes of thanks showed their appreciation of the courtesy of Capt. N. A. Uim, in allowing them the use of the Armory, and of the Armory caretaker, who was untiring in his efforts to make the place pleasant for the visitors from over the county.

Mixed feed, contains ground barley, cracked corn and wheat shorts, 80 lbs. to the sack, cost only $1.35. Manufactured by the Olive Mills.

TWO SUPERVISORS IN AUTO COLLISION

Nobody Was Injured But Both Machines Had to Go to the Repair Shop

Supervisors H. E. Smith and Jasper Leck were participants in a rear-end automobile collision on North Main street last night about dark. They had been in the north end of the county to inspect a county bridge, and were returning in F. J. Rogers' automobile when the accident occurred.

Rogers was driving south on Main. In front of him was C. W. Sheats in his automobile. Sheats had given a boy a ride, and at Fifteenth street stopped to let the boy out. Rogers, although driving only fifteen miles an hour, was too close to turn out, and he tried to turn out, and the side of his machine caught a rear corner of Sheats' machine, with the result that both automobiles had springs broken and were otherwise damaged. No one was thrown from his seat. The two supervisors walked the rest of the way into town.

Supervisor Smith considers himself lucky. He says that he guesses it was about time for him to get into another accident.

About three years ago a horse ran away with him on South Main street, and several months ago his rig was hit at the corner of First and Bush in the latter accident the supervisor had his shoulder broken.

HALE TO RETIRE FROM WATER BOARD

To Sever Connection With
Governing Body After 11
Years' Service

Anaheim Gazette: After a service of eleven years upon the board of directors of the Anaheim Union Water Company, H. H. Hale, of Placentia, has decided to retire from the board. He gives as his reasons the fact that membership makes too heavy a drain upon his time, and that his private interests are such that they now require his undivided attention. No successor has as yet been announced for his position, and a new director will probably be appointed by the board, which, it now seems, will be permitted to hold over without a contest, at the annual meeting on Saturday, January 25. While proxies are being gathered for the meeting, it is not thought likely a quorum of stockholders will be present, and in that event, Secretary Wallop will be instructed to cast a ballot for the entire directorate. Mr. Hale's successor may be named at the annual meeting, but as his associates on the board are loath to part with his services, an effort will probably be made to persuade him to remain in his position. A rumor that Ralph McFadden also contemplated resigning, is denied by that gentleman, who said yesterday that he had not intended anything of the kind to anyone. Both gentlemen are valuable members of the board, and each has stock enough behind him to insure his election in event of a contest.

Hale has always stood for the best interests of the stockholders, and his objection to segregating oil from water stock at the annual meeting last January did much to silence that project, after it had been supported by a number of the largest stockholders. While there has continued some talk about separating stock, it is thought chances for so doing are so slight that it will hardly be again attempted, however, it may be again brought up at the meeting on the 25th, and if so it will undoubtedly provoke a spirited discussion.

All the other members of the board of directors are opposed to segregation except Sherwood, who stands sponsor for the separatists. It is held by those favoring segregation that the present high cost of water stock works injury to men wishing to dispose of property. With stock being held at $200 a share on a rising market, the great cost of water stock, when added to the price of land, makes realty transfers almost impossible. Indeed, very little water stock orchard lands is being offered for sale, but it is known that several tracts would have changed hands during the year had water and oil been separated. Thus, parties wishing to dispose of their property would have turned over water stock with their lands at $50 per share, and retained oil at $150. Yet, while the excessive cost of stock seems to have become an embarrassment of riches, the bulk of the shareholders resolutely oppose separation because they fear control of the oil company might fall into speculative hands, with the result that they might be losers of their holdings in the end.

Should Hale be permitted to resign, an effort will be made to name another director from the southern end of the district to succeed him. There is stock sufficient in this portion of the district to elect two directors, yet only one is now a member of the board in the person of J. J. Dwyer, who represents the interests of his constituents in an admirable manner.

The board of audit will today begin examination of books and accounts in the secretary's office. It is said no successor will be appointed to A. I. Stewart, who was appointed a member of the auditing committee at the last stockholders' annual meeting in January last year, and who has since moved out of the district. The two remaining members, George S. Troher, and Arthur Staley, will make the examination. The company's finances were never in better condition, royalties from oil having placed a large amount in its treasury. Three quarters of a million dollars worth of oil has been taken from the La Habra reservoir site, and more than $80,000 has been paid the company in royalties.

Pacific Coast News Letter

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—"Any report that the army engineering board favors the McCloud or any other proposed source of water supply for San Francisco is purely imaginative," declared Col. John Biddle, chairman of the army board, to day, in commenting on recent rumors from San Francisco on the Hetch Hetchy dispute. "Our report may be ready about January 7. We are awaiting some further data to be furnished by the city's engineers, and we have then to make our conclusion."

"The question as to what we will recommend has not yet been decided."

Secretary of the Interior Fisher, who will act on the permit after the army board has reported to him, will have less than two months in office from the time of his granting or refusing the use of the Hetch Hetchy valley to the city until his successor is installed, with power to reverse his decision. Present indications are that the new secretary will be Will R. King, former supreme court justice of Oregon, an authority on water power law and a strong progressive.

After having mapped the great Kelp groves in the Pacific ocean, along the coast from the Mexican line to Cape Flattery, Prof. Milton Whitney, chief of the federal bureau of soils, announces that this resource can supply several times the entire demand for potash salts as fertilizer on farms in the United States. Work is now in progress which will determine very closely how many millions this kelp growth is worth.

Prof. Whitney issues a warning that the ground feldspar, ground lava and ground phonolite recently introduced in the American market are not so serviceable in the average case as the standard mixture. Fertilizer enough to supply three times the present needs of the country for a thousand years is estimated to be available from the fields of phosphate and other high grade material already known.

The Geological Survey is publishing in six volumes, designated as Water Supply, Pages 295 to 300, inclusive, the results of the survey and digest of all available data upon the flow of streams within the state of California. This work was undertaken in co-operation with the California Board of Water Control, and with the California Conservation Commission, both of which were given appropriations by the state to secure this information. The state gives $15,000 annually for topographical mapping and $900 for investigation of stream flow, besides special sums for the determination of its water power resources.

An official statement by the Geological Survey is that California is shown in these reports to have water resources worth many millions, and the future value of which will overrun all estimates that may at the present time be considered reasonable.

Will a great army of underpaid, under-educated and largely underfed immigrants from the south of Europe land on the Pacific coast of the United States immediately following the opening of the Panama canal?

The federal bureau of immigration has not made any special investigation of the question, although the officials of the bureau admit that the standard of living of the workers in California, Oregon and Washington is threatened by the arrival of these people in any great numbers.

Analysis of figures from the current report of the bureau, however, shows that for the year ending June, 1912, the immigration to this country from Austria was $5,854, from Hungary, $3,028; from Italy, including Sicily and Sardinia, 157,134; from the Russian empire and Finland 162,395; from Greece, 2449; from Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro, 4447; from Roumania, 1997; from Turkey in Europe, 14,481; Turkey in Asia, 12,788; from Spain, 6327, and from Portugal, 10,230. In contrast to this total of 572,130 coming from the countries where the wages and standards of living are low, is the report of only 27,788 from the entire German empire; 8628 from France; 8675 from Norway, and $3,027 from the United Kingdom. The total of European immigration for the year was 718,857, and the total from all continents, $38,172.

Skilled laborers admitted to the United States during the year numbered 127,016, while there were also landed 184,154 farm laborers, 135,726 common laborers, 116,529 servants and 231,070, including women and children, who had no special occupation.

New York state was the destination of 239,275 of these people, while Pennsylvania received 109,625 and Massachusetts 70,171. California got 28,905, Oregon 4138 and Washington 11,882. Many of those coming to the Pacific coast were Asiatics. When the steamer tickets to San Francisco, Portland and Seattle can be sold in the Mediterranean and Balkan countries for $6 more than the present rate to New York, the immigration officials here believe that the Pacific coast will draw much of the immigrant tide now flowing to New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Tickets for use on steamers to be run through the canal are said to be now on sale on the installment plan in Greece, Italy and Austria.

"The state of Washington is progressive, and the members of the Washington delegation in Congress who support progressive legislation will have the support of the electorate in that course," says Representative William La Follette, who was re-elected last November as a Republican, but who will vote for most of the Woodrow Wilson policies in the next House.

"Any representative from our section of the country who may attempt to protect the special interests as against the legislative needs of the masses of the people is going to face defeat when he comes up again. Our state is not devoted to high tariff. We are going to remain in the vanguard of the progressive movement."

Representative La Follette says that while Wilson may lose some congressional districts two years hence, due to the usual reaction after a landslide, the real test of the success or failure of his work will not come until four years have passed.

The Department of Agriculture has declined to assist the exhibitors at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco in passing through federal and state quarantine any plants imported from abroad which may be found diseased, but which might be so treated as to deprive them of the power of spreading disease among California plants. Inquiry by Representative Kahn of the exposition city, has revealed the fact that the new federal quarantine law makes no provision for fumigation or other disinfection. Hence the California state horticulturist is the only authority who can stand between foreign exhibitors and the loss of plants, trees, etc., which may be found affected by insect or fungus pests.

A bill providing for a federal survey of the Napa river in California, with a view to making cut-offs in the channel at Jacks Point and Carr Bend, has been introduced by Representative Kent. River improvement bills have now been brought in by a majority of the California delegation.

Cold weather requires heat properties to make chickens lay or your horse to grow fat. Try our combination mixed feed, made from cracked corn, ground barley and wheat shorts. OLIVE MILLS.

1913 To Be Great Year For YUCAIPA

Note the big things now under way on the "South Bench."

Work on the roads connecting the Main and South benches now being done.

Work has commenced under the contract to dig twenty-four miles of ditch for the irrigating mains. This will proceed at the rate of one-half mile per day.

Twenty-four miles of steel pipe, from 6 to 16 inches in diameter is being built and delivered and will be placed as rapidly as the ditch is ready. Seventy-eight thousand dollars' worth of pumping machinery is being installed in six big wells.

Distributing reservoirs are being built.

High power Edison electric lines are being put through the valley to the pumping plants.

Forty thousand apple trees are being delivered and the ground is being prepared for early planting.

Homes are being built and many who bought and planted one and two years ago, will during the year locate in the valley.

During 1913 hundreds of acres of trees planted three seasons ago, will come into profitable bearing.

Now that is going some! What are you doing? Soon, very soon, this South Bench, the cream of the valley lands, will all be sold. Hurry up! Remember there is no better soil in Southern California. Remember the location, only 14 miles from Santa Ana, adjoining famous Redlands, elevation 3900 feet, soil like a garden, ready to plant, the most modern irrigating system in the world, domestic water under pressure, railroad, electric light, fine schools, churches, grocers, stores, newspaper, growers' institute, public library, hotel, all these things for ranchers, think of it!

Go with us on a one day trip to see it all for yourself. Make your money work. Easy payments, low interest.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The loss in truck garden produce as a result of frost is roughly estimated at $50,000. Beans, peas, peppers and egg plant will probably be out of the market until a new crop comes in. Lettuce will be of very poor quality, but as it grows very quickly good stock will be obtainable in a short time. The damage to other vegetables, although it has resulted in quite a feeling of firmness, is not expected to affect the supply and prices very greatly. Potatoes were fairly easy. A car of Highlands for future delivery was sold on the exchange at 75 cents a sack. American Wonders from Oregon were offered at $1.10. Sweet potatoes were firm with offerings at $2.25. Garlic was offered at 4 cents and Australian brown onions for delivery in February at $1.50. Pink beans were offered at $4.10 a sack, and the highest bid was $3.85. The market still appeared rather weak on dried beans, but no receipts were reported.

Oregon Newtown apples were offered as low as 80 cents and 75 cents was bid. One hundred four-tier boxes of Bellefleur sold at 95 cents on the exchange. Spitzenberg apples were offered at $1.75. Offerings of cranberries were as low as $1.10 a barrel. Bleached sultana raisins were put up for sale at 4 1/2 cents a pound, and fancy black figs at $1.40 a box. Fifteen was bid at 16 1/2 cents a pound for I.X.L. almonds.

Fresh eggs and butter were firm, the tendency of the latter being upward. Ten cubic feet of extra sold at 35, and offerings following this were pretty steady at 36 cents.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

BROKE LOCKS
TO STEAL HAY

Francisco Garcia of Delhi
Used Mule Shoes on His Horse and Borrowed One

Under-Sheriff Law has landed on two Delhi Mexicans, with the result that one of them Francisco Garcia is charged with burglary and the other, Miguel Talamantes, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $100.

Both men were caught with stolen hay in their possession. Talamantes was charged only with misdemeanor, but Garcia must face a charge of burglary for the reason that in the theft of which he is accused locks were broken to gain entrance to the place from which the hay was stolen. About a week ago the officers began investigating to discover if possible who had stolen some twenty or thirty bales of hay and eight sacks of barley from John King of Pollarino, some fifteen or twenty bales of hay from W. H. Jones of Pollarino and a ton of hay from Joe Gutierrez of Delhi.

The tracks from King's place showed that a team was used and tracks showed mule shoes.

Under-Sheriff Law made a search at Delhi, and found four bales of hay stolen from Jones in Talamantes' barn. Talamantes was arrested, pleaded guilty and was today fined $100 by Justice Cox. Not having the money, Talamantes went to jail.

Law discovered about nineteen bales of hay in Francisco Garcia's barn. Garcia had been operating in a clever manner. For the tags originally in the bales he had substituted some tags cut out by hand from shingles. On one bale, however, Garcia overlooked the tag. Law found it and King and his foreman, Watts, positively identified it as one of their tags.

Then came the search for the mules. Tracks were found running across a field from Garcia's barn, and the wagon was found at a neighbor's place. Garcia has but one horse, and no mules, but the horse was shod with mule shoes. Garcia had borrowed a horse from Deonicio Flores. Flores says he did not loan the horse to Garcia.

In Garcia's barn were found eight or ten bales of hay identified as King's hay and two bales that Jones declares is his. Jones says he followed tracks from his place to Garcia's. As yet Joe Gutierrez has not locked the hay over. Some of it may belong to him. In Garcia's barn Law found five or six sacks of white potatoes sacked for shipment. Law believes the potatoes were stolen, but has no report of any that has been stolen.

The thief who entered the place broke a lock on a fence gate and another on the barn door.

HILLYARD TO STATE PRISON

Orange Youth Seems to Have Looked Upon Probation
Rules Rather Lightly

Dick Hillyard of Orange must go to San Quentin for a three-year term because he flagrantly violated his parole.

Judge West had Hillyard under several weeks ago for forgery. Hillyard promised to behave himself and observe the probationary rules. A few days ago at Orange he was convicted of throwing sand in the face of a Jap who was asleep on the Owl. Investigation in court brought out that Hillyard has been in a saloon at Anaheim and drank at the bar. He was accused of a theft of money from a baker at Orange.

Judge West concluded that Hillyard had forfeited all his rights under his parole, and ordered him sent to San Quentin. Hillyard's father, who was in court, is heart-broken.
